His original name was Davidas Debuji Maharaj who was born in Shedgaon village in Anjangaon Surji Taluka in Amravati District of Maharashtra to a Dhobi Family. A public teacher, he travelled from one place to another wearing his food pan upturned on his head and carrying his trademark broom. When he entered on village, he would instantly start cleaning the gutters and roads of the village. He also told the citizens of the village that their congratulations would have to wait until his work was done.

Villagers gave him money. Babaji used that for progress of physical as well as thinking of society. From the obtained money, Maharaj built educational institutions, dharmashalas, hospitals and animal shelters.

He conducted his discourses in the form of 'Kirtans' in which he would emphasize values like service to humanity and compassion. During his Kirtans, he would educate people against blind faiths and rituals. He would use Dohas by Kabir in his discourses.
